Gla

goljici

Glagoljica je najstarije slavensko pismo koje su u 9. stoljeću stvorila braća Ćiril i Metod za širenje pismenosti i bogoslužja na slavenskom jeziku. Posebno se razvila na hrvatskom prostoru, gdje se koristila stoljećima u crkvenim, književnim i pravnim tekstovima.

Hrvatska glagoljaška tradicija jedna je od najvažnijih u Europi, a poznati spomenik glagoljične baštine je Bašćanska ploča. Danas je glagoljica simbol hrvatske kulturne i povijesne baštine.

The Glagolitic script is the oldest Slavic alphabet, created in the 9th century by Saints Cyril and Methodius to promote literacy and worship in the Slavic language. It flourished particularly in Croatia, where it was used for centuries in religious, literary, and legal texts.

The Croatian Glagolitic tradition is one of the most significant in Europe. One of its most famous monuments is the Baška Tablet, a remarkable example of Glagolitic heritage. Today, the Glagolitic script stands as a symbol of Croatia's cultural and historical identity.

Tvorac glagoljice, prvog slavenskog pisma, dao je svakom slovu ime. Prva slova glagoljične azbuke zovu se: azъ, buky, vêdy, glagoljo, dobro, estъ, živêti, zêlo, zemlja – a tako poredana tvore rečenicu: “Ja, slovo znajući, govorim: dobro je živjeti veoma na zemlji.” U slobodnom prijevodu na suvremeni jezik: “Ja, koji slova znam, govorim da je vrlo dobro živjeti na zemlji.” Svako slovo imalo je i brojčanu vrijednost, pa azbučni redosljed slova pomaže i pri pamćenju brojeva.

The creator of Glagolitic script, the first Slavic alphabet, gave a name to each letter. The first letters of the Glagolitic alphabet are: azъ, buky, vêdy, glagoljo, dobro, estъ, živêti, zêlo, zemlja. Arranged in sequence, they form the sentence: “I, knowing letters, say: it is good to live greatly on Earth.” In modern language: “I, who know letters, say that it is very good to live on Earth.” Each letter also had a numerical value, so the alphabetical order of letters also helped with memorizing numbers.
